1.2 WORDS AND PHRASES

For the purpose of this Resolution, all words used herein in the present tense shall include the future; all words used in the plural shall include the singular; all words used in the singular shall include the plural; and all words used in the masculine gender shall include the feminine.

1.3 SEPARABILITY

If any section, article, clause, or phrase of this Resolution is for any reason held to be invalid, such a decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Resolution.

1.4 EFFECTIVE DATE

This Resolution shall become effective upon the date of its adoption and supersede all other Resolutions or Policies or Ordinances in conflict there within.

1.5 SUBSEQUENT REVISIONS

That the Board of Directors of the Agency may, by Resolution duly passed upon the affirmative vote of the majority of the members of the Board of Directors, modify and amend the Employee Handbook at any time and from time to time.

ARTICLE 2.0 INTRODUCTORY POLICIES

2.1 INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

This Employee Handbook sets forth the terms and conditions of the “at will” employment of all full and part-time employees. Individual written employment contracts may supersede some of the provisions of this handbook. This handbook is designed to familiarize every employee with the Agency’s major policies. Supervisors or managers can answer any questions employee’s may have.

2.2 INTEGRATION CLAUSE AND THE RIGHT TO REVISE

The Agency reserves the right to revise, modify, delete or add to any and all policies, procedures, work rules or benefits stated in this handbook or in any other document. All amendments become effective immediately upon their adoption by the Agency Board of Directors. Any written changes to this handbook will be distributed to all employees so that employees will be aware of the new policies or procedures. No oral statements or representations can in any way change or alter the provisions of this handbook. This handbook contains the terms and conditions of the employee’s “at will” employment. Nothing in this employee handbook, or any other personnel document, including benefit plan descriptions, creates or is intended to create a promise or representation of continued employment for any employee.

2.3 EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

This Agency is an equal opportunity employer and makes employment decisions on the basis of merit. The Agency desires to have the best available persons in every job. Agency policy prohibits unlawful discrimination based on race, color, creed, sex, religion, marital status, age, national origin or ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, sexual orientation, gender identity or any other consideration made unlawful by federal, state or local laws. All such discrimination is unlawful. The Agency is committed to complying with all applicable laws providing equal employment opportunities. This commitment applies to all persons involved in the operations of the Agency and prohibits unlawful discrimination by any employee of the Agency, including supervisors and co-workers.

If an employee believes they have been subjected to any form of unlawful discrimination, a written complaint should be submitted to the supervisor or the individual with day-to-day personnel responsibilities. The employee’s complaint should be specific and should include the names of the individuals involved and the names of any witnesses. The Agency will immediately undertake an effective, thorough and objective investigation and attempt to resolve the situation.

If the Agency determines that unlawful discrimination has occurred, effective remedial action will be taken commensurate with the severity of the offense. Appropriate action will also be taken to deter any future discrimination, whatever action is taken will be made known to the employee and the Agency will take appropriate action to remedy any loss to the employee as a result of the discrimination. The Agency will not retaliate against any employee for filing a complaint and will not knowingly permit retaliation by management employees or co-workers.

2.4 UNLAWFUL HARASSMENT

1. Policy Statement. The Agency strictly prohibits unlawful harassment. This includes harassment on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, race, color, ancestry, religious creed, disability, medical condition, age (over 40), marital status, gender identity or any other protected class under applicable law.
2. Application.
 - A. This policy applies to all phases of the employment relationship, including recruitment, testing, hiring, upgrading, promotion/demotion, transfer, layoff, termination, rates of pay, benefits, and selection for training.
 - B. This policy applies to all officers and employees of the Agency, including, but not limited to, full- and part-time employees, per diem employees, temporary employees, and persons working under contract for the Agency.
3. Harassment Defined.
 - A. Harassment may consist of offensive verbal, physical, or visual conduct when such conduct is based on or related to an individual's sex and/or membership in one of the above-described protected classifications, and:
 - (1) Submission to the offensive conduct is an explicit or implicit term or condition of employment;
 - (2) Submission to or rejection of the offensive conduct forms the basis for an employment decision affecting the employee; or
 - (3) The offensive conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.
 - B. Examples of what may constitute prohibited harassment include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - (1) Kidding or joking about sex or membership in one of the protected classifications;
 - (2) Hugs, pats, and similar physical contact;

- (3) Assault, impeding or blocking movement, or any physical interference with normal work or movement;
- (4) Cartoons, posters, e-mails and other materials referring to sex or membership in one of the protected classifications;
- (5) Threats intended to induce sexual favors;
- (6) Continued suggestions or invitations to social events outside the workplace after being told such suggestions are unwelcome;
- (7) Degrading words or offensive terms of a sexual nature or based on the individual's membership in one of the protected classifications;

- (9) Similar conduct directed at an individual on the basis of race, color, ancestry, religious creed, disability, medical condition, age (over 40), marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or any other protected classification under applicable law.

4. Procedure.

A. Internal Reporting Procedure

- (1) Any employee who believes that they have been the victim of sexual or other prohibited harassment by coworkers, supervisors, clients or customers, visitors, vendors, or others should immediately notify their supervisor or, in the alternative, the General Manager, depending on which individual the employee feels most comfortable in contacting.
- (2) Additionally, supervisors who observe or otherwise become aware of harassment that violates this policy have a duty to take steps to investigate and remedy such harassment and prevent its recurrence.

B. External Reporting Procedure

- (1) Any employee who believes that they have been the victim of sexual or other prohibited harassment by coworkers, supervisors, clients or customers, visitors, vendors, or others may file a complaint with the California Department of Fair Employment & Housing or the Fair Employment & Housing Commission ("DFEH"). The phone number for DFEH is located in the phone book under government agencies.

5. Investigation.

- A. Upon the filing of a complaint with the Agency, the complainant will be provided with a copy of this policy. The General Manager is the person designated by the Agency to investigate complaints of harassment. The General Manager may, however, delegate the investigation at their discretion. In the event the harassment complaint is against the General Manager, an investigator shall be appointed by the Board of Directors and the Board will assume the role of the General Manager throughout the process.
- B. Charges filed with the DFEH are investigated by the DFEH.

6. Internal Documentation Procedure.

- A. When an allegation of harassment is made by an employee, the person to whom the complaint is made shall immediately prepare a report of the complaint according to the preceding section and submit it to the General Manager.
- B. The investigator shall make and keep a written record of the investigation, including notes of verbal responses made to the investigator by the person complaining of harassment, witnesses interviewed during the investigation, the person against whom the complaint of harassment was made, and any other person contacted by the investigator in connection with the investigation. The investigator's notes shall be made at the time the verbal interview is in progress. Any other documentary evidence shall be retained as part of the record of the investigation. Upon completion of the investigation, the results shall be given to the complainant, the alleged harasser, and the General Manager.
- C. Based on the report and any other relevant information, the General Manager shall, within a reasonable period of time, determine whether the conduct of the person against whom a complaint has been made constitutes harassment. In making that determination, the General Manager shall look at the record as a whole and at the totality of circumstances, including the nature of the conduct in question; the context in which the conduct, if any, occurred; and the conduct of the person complaining of harassment. The determination of whether harassment occurred will be made on a case-by-case basis by the General Manager.

7. Confidentiality. All records and information relating to the investigation of any alleged harassment and resulting disciplinary action shall be confidential, except to the extent disclosure is required by law, as part of the investigatory or disciplinary process, or as otherwise reasonably necessary.

8. Remedies.

A. Disciplinary Action.

- (1) If the General Manager determines that the complaint of harassment is founded, the General Manager shall take immediate and appropriate disciplinary action consistent with the requirements of law and any personnel rules or regulations pertaining to employee discipline. Other steps may be taken to the extent reasonably necessary to prevent recurrence of the harassment and to remedy the complainant's loss, if any.
- (2) Disciplinary action shall be consistent with the nature and severity of the offense, the rank of the harasser, and any other factors relating to the fair and efficient administration of the Agency's operations.

B. In the event a complaint is filed with the DFEH, and the DFEH finds that the complaint has merit, the DFEH will attempt to negotiate a settlement between the parties. If not settled, DFEH may issue a determination on the merits of the case.

- (1) Where a case is not settled and the DFEH finds a violation to exist, it can prosecute the charging party's case before the Fair Employment & Housing Commission ("FEHC"). Legal remedies available through DFEH and FEHC for a successful claim by an applicant, employee, or former employee include possible reinstatement to a former job; award of a job applied for; back pay; front pay; attorneys' fees; and under appropriate circumstances, actual damages and/or administrative fines.
- (2) In the alternative, DFEH may grant the employee permission to withdraw the case and pursue a private lawsuit seeking similar remedies.

9. Retaliation. Retaliation against anyone for opposing conduct prohibited by this policy or for filing a complaint with or otherwise participating in an investigation, proceeding or hearing conducted by the Agency, DFEH, or FEHC is strictly prohibited by the Agency and state regulations. It may subject the offending person to, among other things, disciplinary action, up to and including, termination of employment.

ARTICLE 3.0 EMPLOYMENT POLICIES AND PRACTICES

3.1 AT-WILL EMPLOYMENT

Bighorn-Desert View Water Agency personnel are employed on an at-will basis (only employees hired prior to December 20, 2005 are not "at will"). Employment at-will may be terminated with or without cause and with or without notice at any time by the employee or the Agency. Nothing in this handbook shall limit the right to terminate at-will employment, with or without cause, or prior notice. No individual Board member, manager, supervisor, or employee of the Agency has any authority to enter into an agreement for employment for any specified period of time or to make an agreement for employment on other than at-will terms. Only the General Manager of the Bighorn-Desert View Water Agency has the authority to make any such agreement, which is binding only if it is in writing and approved by the Board of Directors.

3.2 NEW HIRES

After an offer of employment has been made and prior to the commencement of employment duties, each applicant for any position with the Agency must be examined by a medical doctor, designated by the Agency, to determine the applicant's ability to perform the physical activity requirements of the job. Additionally the Agency will require applicants to pass a drug screening test at the time of the physical examination if they will be assigned to a "safety-sensitive" position (as defined by the Agency Drug and Alcohol Testing Program).

Upon successful completion of the required physical examination the supervisor of each newly hired employee will administer an orientation process. The orientation process is designed to familiarize each newly hired employee with the Agency's practices, policies, and benefit plans. It includes their initial safety training, initial job training, the completion of required forms and documents, and any other job related information. A checklist of the topics covered in the orientation process must be completed by the newly hired employee, signed by the employee and their supervisor, and will be maintained as part of the employee's personnel records.

The first ninety (90) days of continuous employment at the Agency is considered a training period. During the training period training employees do not accrue and are not eligible for benefits described in this handbook, unless required by law. During this time employees will learn their job responsibilities and get acquainted with fellow employees and surroundings. Also, during this time, supervisors will closely monitor job performance. Upon completion of the training period, the General Manager will review the employee's overall performance. Completion of the training period does not entitle an employee to remain employed by the Agency for any defined period of time as employment is "at will". Both employee and the Agency are free, at any time, to end the employment relationship. After completion of the training period, eligible employees will receive the benefits described in this handbook.

3.3 REGULAR EMPLOYEES

Employees who have completed their training period shall be known as "regular" employees. Such employees may be either full-time or part-time. The distinction between full-time and part-time depends upon the number of hours that an employee works.

3.4 FULL-TIME EMPLOYEES

Regular full-time employees are those normally scheduled to work 40 hours per week. Following the completion of the training period, regular full-time employees are eligible for the employee benefits described in this handbook.

3.5 PART-TIME EMPLOYEES

Regular part-time such employees may be assigned a work schedule in advance or may work on an as-needed basis. Regular part-time employees are eligible for employee benefits only as expressly provided for in this handbook.

3.6 TEMPORARY EMPLOYEES

Temporary employees are those employed for short-term assignments. Temporary employees are not eligible for employee benefits except where mandated by applicable law. The physical examination for temporary employees may be waived by the General Manager.

3.7 JOB DUTIES

During the training period, a co-worker and/or supervisor will be assigned to explain the job responsibilities and the performance standards expected of the newly hired. (See Appendix A- Job Classification Schedule). Be aware that, within the parameters of the job class, the job responsibilities may change at any time during employment. From time to time, employees may be asked to work on special projects or to assist with other work necessary or important to the operation of the Agency. The employee's cooperation and assistance in performing such additional work is expected. The Agency reserves the right, at any time, with or without notice, to alter or change job responsibilities, reassign or transfer job positions, or assign additional job responsibilities.

3.8 WORK SCHEDULES

The Agency's office is normally open for business between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. The General Manager will assign the employee's work schedule. All employees are expected to be ready to work at the start of their scheduled shifts. If for some reason an employee is unable to be at work when their shift begins, they are required to notify their supervisor at least one half hour before their scheduled reporting time, failure to do so may result in disciplinary action by the Agency. Exchanging work schedules with other employees is discouraged. However, if it is necessary to exchange schedules, notify the supervisor, who may or may not authorize such an exchange.

3.9 MEAL AND REST PERIODS

Employees are provided with a meal period, to be taken approximately in the middle of the workday. Employees are allowed ten minute rest periods for every four hours of work or major portion thereof. Supervisors will schedule your meal and rest periods.

3.10 PERSONNEL RECORDS

Employees have a right to inspect their personnel file, as provided by law, in the presence of an Agency representative at a mutually convenient time. Employees may add their version of any disputed item to the file. The Agency will restrict disclosure of personnel files to authorized individuals within the Agency (i.e., employee, employee supervisor, or General Manager). Any request for information from personnel files must be directed to the General Manager. Only the General Manager or their designee is authorized to release information about current or former employees. Disclosure of personnel information to outside sources will be restricted to cooperation with authorized law enforcement or local, state or federal agencies conducting official investigations.

3.11 EMPLOYEE REFERENCES

All requests for references must be directed to the General Manager or their designee. No other manager, supervisor or employee is authorized to release references for current or former employees. The Agency's policy as to references for employees who have left the Agency is to disclose only the dates of employment and the title of the last position held. If an employee authorizes disclosure in writing, the Agency will also provide a prospective employer with the information on the amount of salary or wage last earned.

3.12 PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS

Employees will receive periodic performance reviews. The review will be conducted by the supervisor who will discuss it with the employee. The first performance evaluation will be after completion of the training period. After that review, performance evaluations will be conducted annually, on or about the anniversary date of employment with the Agency. The frequency of performance evaluations may vary depending upon length of service, job position, past performance, changes in job duties or recurring performance problems. Performance evaluations may review factors such as the quality and quantity of the work performed, knowledge of the job, initiative, work attitude and attitude toward others. The performance evaluation should help every employee become aware of their progress, areas for improvement and objectives or goals for future work performance.

After the review, employees will be required to sign the evaluation report simply to acknowledge that it has been presented, reviewed and discussed with them by their supervisor and that they are aware of its contents. Positive performance evaluations do not guarantee increases in salary. Salary increases are solely within the discretion of the Agency, and depend upon many factors in addition to performance. Promotions are solely within the discretion of the Agency.

3.13 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The purpose of the grievance procedure is to provide a means by which employee grievances may be considered, discussed and resolved at the closest possible level to the point of origin. A grievance is any dispute concerning the interpretation or application of the rules or regulations governing personnel practices or working conditions, or of the practical consequences of a decision on wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment. Grievances shall be waived for all purposes if not presented to the supervisor within ten working days from the date the aggrieved employee knew, or by reasonable diligence could have known, of the occurrence of the act or omission on which the grievance is based. Grievances shall be presented in accordance with the procedures set forth below. The time period for review of the grievance may be extended at any level of the procedure by mutual written consent of both parties.

INFORMAL PROCEDURE: An employee with a grievance shall first discuss it with their immediate supervisor without delay. If the problem is not answered to their satisfaction, they shall have the right to discuss it with the supervisor's immediate superior. Every effort shall be made to resolve the problem in this manner.

FORMAL PROCEDURE: If informal efforts have not been successful in resolving an employee's problem, they may avail themselves of this formal procedure by submitting their appeal in writing within five working days of the final answer given in the informal procedure. The written appeal shall include a detailed nature of the grievance and their expectations for resolution. The procedure is as follows:

- FIRST LEVEL OF APPEAL: The written appeal shall be submitted to the employee's immediate supervisor who shall hold a meeting within five working days and shall render a decision and comments in writing within five working days of the meeting.
- GENERAL MANAGER REVIEW: If the employee does not agree with the decision, or if no answer has been received within six working days, the employee may forward the original appeal in writing to the General Manager. Failure of the employee to take further action within ten working days after receipt of the first level decision, or within a total of ten working days if no decision is rendered, will bar further consideration. The General Manager shall discuss the grievance with the employee and with other appropriate persons, if any. The General Manager shall render a decision regarding the original appeal and comments in writing and return them to the employee within ten working days after receiving the written appeal. The only appeals that can go beyond the General Manager level are appeals from actions where "punitive discipline" was imposed. "Punitive discipline" is defined as termination, suspension without pay of three (3) days or more or demotion. (For employees hired prior to December 20, 2005, "major disciplinary actions," including "punitive discipline," shall be administered as set forth in Section 3.17 and the grievance procedure shall not apply to such actions.) Performance appraisals shall not be appealed beyond the General Manager level.

- BOARD REVIEW: If the employee does not agree with the decision made at the General Manager level where punitive discipline was imposed the employee may within five working days, present their appeal in writing to the General Manager requesting a hearing before the Board. All evidence and supporting documents must be submitted with the appeal letter. At the employee's request, this hearing may be in either open or closed session. The decision of the Board of Directors shall be final and binding on all parties.

The grievance is considered resolved at any step in the procedure when the employee is satisfied that the problem has been resolved.

Throughout the duration of the grievance process the employee shall remain in their current classification at their current rate of compensation whether placed on leave status or not. The grievance procedure is the right of every regular employee and no punitive action of any kind shall be assessed against any regular employee for legally and professionally utilizing the grievance process.

3.14 EMPLOYMENT OF RELATIVES

The Agency will not hire relatives where actual or potential problems may arise regarding supervision, security, safety or morale, or where potential conflicts of interest exist. "Relatives" are defined to include spouses, registered domestic partners, children, siblings, parents, in-laws and step-relatives. If two employees marry, become registered domestic partners, or become related, causing actual or potential problems such as those described above, only one of the employees will be retained with the Agency unless reasonable accommodations can be made to eliminate the actual or potential problems. The employees will have 30 days to decide which relative will stay with the Agency. If this decision is not made in the time allowed, the General Manager of the Agency will make the decision, taking the employment history and job performance of both employees into account.

3.15 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Situations of actual or potential conflict of interest are to be avoided by all employees. Personal or romantic involvement with a competitor, supplier or subordinate employee of the Agency, which impairs an employee's ability to exercise good judgment on behalf of the Agency, creates an actual or potential conflict of interest. Supervisor-subordinate romantic or personal relationships also can lead to supervisory problems, possible claims of sexual harassment and morale problems.

An employee involved in any of the types of relationships or situations described in this policy should immediately and fully disclose the relevant circumstances to their immediate supervisor, or any other appropriate supervisor, for a determination as to whether a potential or actual conflict exists. If an actual or potential conflict is determined, the Agency may take whatever corrective action appears appropriate according to the circumstances. Failure to disclose facts shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action.

3.16 REDUCTIONS IN FORCE

Under some circumstances, the Agency may need to restructure or reduce its work force. If it becomes necessary to restructure Agency operations or reduce the number of employees, the Agency will attempt to provide reasonable advance notice, if possible, so as to minimize the impact on those affected. If possible, employees subject to layoff will be informed of the nature of the layoff and the foreseeable duration of the layoff, whether short-term or indefinite.

The Agency will abide by any and all labor laws relative to reductions in force. In determining which employees will be subject to layoff, the Agency will take into account, among other things, operation requirements, the skill, productivity, ability and past performance of those involved and also, where feasible, the employee's length of service.

3.17 TERMINATION AND PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE

Violation of Agency policies and/or rules may result in disciplinary action. The Agency may follow a system of progressive discipline which may, but need not, include verbal warnings, written warnings, suspension, and/or termination. All disciplinary action taken shall be recorded in the employee's personnel file.

For employees hired prior to December 20, 2005, the following disciplinary process will apply to "major disciplinary actions" (defined as terminations, demotions or suspensions without pay:

1. Prior to imposing a major disciplinary action, the employee shall be provided with a notice of proposed disciplinary action which shall include the documents upon which the disciplinary action is based. The notice shall indicate that the employee shall have up to seven (7) calendar days to schedule a "Skelly" hearing with the General Manager. Following the Skelly hearing, or seven (7) days if the employee does not choose to schedule one, the General Manager shall issue the employee a notice of disciplinary action. If the disciplinary action is a termination, demotion or suspension without pay for five (5) days or more, the employee shall have seven (7) calendar days to file an appeal. The appeal shall be in writing and delivered to the General Manager.

4.4 OVERTIME

As necessary, employees may be required to work overtime. For purposes of determining which hours constitute forty (40) hours in a workweek for overtime eligibility, only actual hours worked, the three (3) hour facility inspection pay, paid holidays, pre-approved vacation and reasonable sick leave will be counted. The Agency will attempt to distribute overtime evenly and accommodate individual schedules. All overtime work must be previously authorized by a supervisor. The Agency provides compensation for all overtime hours worked by hourly employees in accordance with state and federal law as follows:

Compensatory time must be reported on the employee's time card and submitted to the payroll department. (Compensatory time must be elected by the employee prior to performing the work.) In addition, the use or possession of these substances on the job constitutes a potential danger to the welfare and safety of other employees and exposes the Agency to the risks of property loss or damage, or injury to other persons. Furthermore, the use of prescription drugs and/or over-the-counter drugs also may affect an employee's job performance and seriously impair the employee's value to the Agency.

Employees are expected to report to work as scheduled, on time and prepared to start work. Employees also are expected to remain at work for their entire work schedule, except for meal periods or when required to leave on authorized Agency business. Late arrival, early departure or other absences from scheduled hours are disruptive and must be avoided.

If unable to report for work on any particular day, the employee must call your supervisor at least one half hour before the time they are scheduled to begin working for that day. In all cases of absence or tardiness, employees must provide their supervisor with an honest reason or explanation. Employees also must inform their supervisor of the expected duration of any absence. Unless there are extenuating circumstances, employees must call in on each day they are scheduled to work that they will be absent or tardy.

Never place a telephone caller on hold for an extended period. Direct incoming calls to the appropriate person and make sure the call is received. Employees are expected to be polite, courteous, prompt and attentive to every customer. When a situation arises where the employee does not feel comfortable or capable of handling the problem, the supervisor or General Manager should be called immediately.

As set forth above, vacation shall be available for use on the first day following the pay period in which it is earned, provided an employee has completed ninety (90) days of continuous service.

Temporary and part-time employees do not accrue paid vacation time.

Vacation periods should be taken annually with the approval of the General Manager at such time as will not impair the work schedule or efficiency of the Agency but with consideration given to the well-being of the employee. No employee shall lose earned vacation leave time because of work urgency. If an employee has reached the maximum allowed unused balance and is unable to take vacation leave the employee shall be compensated for up to fifty percent (50%) of the accrued vacation balance with the remaining amount remaining available for use. Otherwise, employees are not allowed to "cash out" vacation.

Vacations shall be scheduled to provide adequate coverage of job responsibilities and staffing requirements. The General Manager will make final determinations and all vacation leave must be approved two (2) weeks in advance. The General Manager may, at their discretion, grant vacation leave in the event of an unforeseen emergency without applying the two (2) week advance notice requirement.

Employees on unpaid leave do not accrue vacation time. If a holiday occurs during an employee's vacation period, they will be granted one additional day of vacation, to be taken at a time approved in advance by their supervisor.

An employee whose employment terminates will be paid for accrued unused vacation days.

7.3 INSURANCE BENEFITS

MEDICAL INSURANCE: The Agency provides a comprehensive medical, vision, dental, and life insurance plan for full and eligible part time employees. Medical insurance for employee dependents is provided on a cost sharing basis. An employee becomes eligible within one (1) month following the successful completion of their training period and at that time the employee and their dependents may begin to take advantage of the insurance benefits. In the event of an increase in medical insurance premium rates, all employees may be required to contribute to the cost of increased premiums to retain coverage.

DISABILITY INSURANCE: Each employee contributes to the state of California to provide disability insurance pursuant to the California Unemployment Insurance Code. Contributions are made through a payroll deduction. Disability insurance is payable when the employee cannot work because of illness or injury not caused by employment.

Specific rules and regulations governing disability are available from the Employment Development Department.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION: The Agency contributes each year to the California Unemployment Insurance Fund on behalf of its employees.

WORKERS COMPENSATION: At no cost to the employee, the employee is protected by the Agency's workers' compensation insurance policy while employed by the Agency. The policy covers the employees in case of occupational injury or illness.

RETIREMENT PLAN: The Agency contracts with the California Public Employees Retirement System to provide a plan for eligible employees in order to assist in planning for their retirement. For information regarding eligibility, contributions, benefits and tax status, contact the General Manager. All eligible participants will receive a summary plan description.

7.4 SICK LEAVE

It is the intention of the Agency that sick leave be provided to each regular employee for use in the event of illness. Sick leave shall accrue for all eligible employees at the rate of eight (8) hours per month of service. Accrued sick leave shall be awarded at the end of each accrual period. An employee using sick leave shall, on a daily basis, notify their supervisor that they will be absent from work due to illness at least one half hour before they are scheduled to report for work.

There is no limit on the amount of sick leave that may be accrued. Upon retirement or termination, an employee shall be entitled to payment for any accrued but unused sick leave in excess of 200 hours based on each two (2) hours of accrued sick leave being converted to one (1) hour of vacation leave or upon retirement unused accrued sick leave may be applied to the employee's retirement service credit with the Public Employees Retirement System.

Any employee who has used all their accrued sick leave and is still unable to return to work due to illness must make arrangements with the General Manager for additional time off. All employees shall provide written verification from a physician of sickness or injury if sick leave continues for more than three (3) consecutive days.

The use of sick leave applies to, but may not be limited to the following:

- a. Any bona fide illness or injury.
- b. Quarantine due to exposure to a contagious disease.
- c. Any required treatment or examination for medical, dental or ocular purposes.
- d. Sickness or injury in the immediate family which includes your child, parent, spouse, registered domestic partner or registered domestic partner's child

Sick leave is a benefit provided by the Agency, not a right earned by the employee. Abuse of this benefit will not be tolerated. Excessive abuse of the sick leave benefit could result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

7.5 LEAVES OF ABSENCE

The Board shall have the authority to grant leaves to the General Manager. The General Manager shall have the authority to grant leaves to all other Agency employees in accordance with the provisions under which eligible leaves may be granted. All leaves shall be requested on a form provided by the Agency prior to the start of the requested leave. Failure to return promptly from authorized leave without prior authorization from the General Manager may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

A leave of absence, not to exceed thirty (30) consecutive days, may be requested in writing by any regular Agency employee. The General Manager may grant the leave provided that the leave is in the best interest of the Agency and the employee. The leave shall be without pay and no benefits shall accrue or be paid during the term of the leave. However, the employee may self-pay the premiums under the provisions of "COBRA." Supervisors can provide employees additional information on this subject.

A leave of absence requested for a period longer than thirty (30) consecutive days shall be reviewed by the Agency personnel committee and may or may not be granted by the Board of Directors.

7.6 MEDICAL LEAVES

A medical leave of absence may be granted for non-work related temporary medical disabilities (other than pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions) for up to four months with a doctor's written certificate of disability. Requests for leave should be made in writing as far in advance as possible. If an employee is granted a medical leave the Agency will pay wages from the employees accrued sick leave account for the period of time equivalent to the accumulated sick pay earned. Employees also may use any paid vacation time previously accrued. If an employee is a disabled individual pursuant to the Fair Employment and Housing Act and the Agency does not grant the leave of absence, an interactive process meeting will be scheduled.

A medical leave begins on the first day the employees doctor certifies that they are unable to work and ends when the employees doctor certifies that they are able to return to work or after a total of four months of leave, whichever occurs first. The supervisor will supply the appropriate form for the employees doctor to complete, showing the date the employee was disabled and the estimated date when the employee will be able to return to work. An employee returning from a medical disability leave must present a doctor's certificate showing fitness to return to work based on the essential physical functions of the assigned position.

If returning from a non-work-related medical leave the employee will be offered the same position held at the time of leaving, if available. If this position is not available due to an “undue hardship,” a comparable position will be offered. If neither the same nor a comparable position is available, the employees return to work will depend on job openings existing at the time of your scheduled return. There are no guarantees of reinstatement and the employees return will depend on their qualifications for existing openings.

California workers' compensation laws govern work-related illnesses and injuries. The Agency will fully comply with these laws.

7.7 PREGNANCY-RELATED DISABILITY LEAVE

Pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions will be treated like any other disability, and an employee on leave will be eligible for temporary disability benefits in the same amount and degree as any employee on leave.

All female employees should advise their supervisor of their intent to take pregnancy disability leave as soon as possible. The individual should make an appointment with the General Manager to discuss the following conditions:

- a. Employees who need to take pregnancy disability must inform the Agency when a leave is expected to begin and how long it will likely last. If the need for a leave or transfer is foreseeable, employees should provide notification at least 30 days before the pregnancy disability leave or transfer is to begin. Employees should consult with the General Manager regarding the scheduling of any planned medical treatment or supervision in order to minimize disruption to the operations of the Agency. Any such scheduling is subject to the approval of the employee's health care provider.
- b. If 30 days advance notice is not possible, notice must be given as soon as practical.
- c. If requested by the employee and recommended by the employee's physician, the employee's work assignment may be changed as required to protect the health and safety of the employee and their child.
- d. Requests for transfers of job duties will be reasonably accommodated only if the job and security rights of others are not breached.
- e. Temporary transfers due to health considerations will be granted where possible. However, the employee will receive the pay that accompanies the job, as is the case with any other temporary transfer due to temporary health reasons.
- f. Pregnancy leave will usually begin when ordered by the employee's physician. Employees must provide the Agency with a certification from a health care provider. The certification indicating disability should contain:
 - The date on which the employee became disabled due to pregnancy;
 - The probably duration of the period or periods of disability; and
 - A statement that, due to the disability, the employee is unable to perform one or more of the essential functions of her position without undue risk to herself, the successful completion of her pregnancy, or to other persons.
- g. Leave returns will be allowed only when the employee's physician sends a release indicating fitness to return to work based on the essential physical functions of the assigned position.
- h. An employee will be allowed to utilize accrued vacation and/or sick leave during a pregnancy disability leave.

Duration of the leave will be determined by the advice of employee's physician, but employees disabled by pregnancy may take up to four months. The four months of leave includes any period of time for actual disability caused by the employee's pregnancy, childbirth or related medical condition. This includes leave for severe morning sickness and for prenatal care. Leave does not need to be taken in one continuous period of time and may be taken intermittently, as needed.

An employee returning from a pregnancy disability leave will be offered the same position held at the time of leaving, unless the job no longer exists, or the job has been filled in order to avoid undermining the Agency's ability to operate safely and efficiently, or they are not capable of performing the job responsibilities. If their former position is not available, a substantially similar position will be offered unless there is no substantially similar position available, or filling the available position with said employee would substantially undermine the Agency's ability to operate safely and efficiently, or said employee is not capable of performing the job responsibilities.

If on pregnancy disability leave and not eligible for continued paid coverage after 12 work weeks, the employee may continue their group health insurance coverage through the Agency in conjunction with "COBRA" guidelines by making monthly payments to the Agency for the amount of the relevant premium.

7.8 BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

In the event of a death of an employee's immediate family, the employee may apply for and receive up to a maximum of five (5) days of bereavement leave per incident with pay. The immediate family is defined as a current spouse, registered domestic partner, child, parent, legal guardian, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild, or mother-in-law, father-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, son-in-law, or daughter-in-law.

7.9 MILITARY LEAVE

Military leave will be granted in accordance with applicable law.

7.10 JURY DUTY LEAVE

Any employee who is required to serve on jury duty, and has completed their training period, will receive full pay while serving up to ten (10) days of jury duty per calendar year. A leave of absence without pay will be granted if jury duty exceeds the ten (10) day limit. The employee should notify the supervisor of the need for time off for jury duty as soon as a notice or summons from the court is received. The employee may be requested to provide written verification from the court clerk of having served. If work time remains after any day of jury duty the employee will be expected to return to work. Any mileage allowance paid by the court for jury services is to be retained by the employee.

7.11 TIME OFF FOR VOTING

In the event that an employee does not have sufficient time outside of working hours to vote in a statewide election, the employee may take off enough working time to enable him or her to vote. Such time off shall be taken at the beginning or the end of the regular working shift, whichever allows for more free time, and the time taken off shall be combined with the voting time available outside of working hours. Under these circumstances an employee will be allowed a maximum of two hours on the Election Day without loss of pay. Where possible, the employee shall give his or her supervisor at least two working days' notice that time off to vote is needed.

7.12 SCHOOL CONFERENCES INVOLVING SUSPENSION

If it becomes necessary for an employee who is the parent or guardian of a child to attend the child's school to discuss possible suspension, the employee should alert his or her supervisor as soon as possible so that alternative arrangements may be made. No discriminatory action will be taken against the employee for taking time off for this purpose.

7.13 EXTERNAL EMPLOYEE EDUCATION

It may be necessary for employees to attend training programs, seminars, conferences, lectures, meetings or other outside activities for the benefit of the Agency or the individual employees. Attendance at such activities may be required by the Agency or requested by individual employees. However, attendance will not be considered an officially authorized activity, subject to the following policies on reimbursement and compensation, unless prior written approval has been issued by the General Manager. To obtain approval, employees wishing to attend an activity must submit a written request detailing all relevant information, including date, hours, location, cost, expenses, and nature, purpose and justification for attendance.

Where attendance is required or authorized by the Agency, customary and reasonable expenses will be reimbursed upon submission of proper receipts. Reimbursement for required or authorized educational classes will be awarded after successful completion of the educational class and the receipt of a passing grade (C or better). Customary and reasonable expenses generally may include registration fees, materials, meals, transportation and parking. Reimbursement policies regarding these expenses should be discussed with the General Manager in advance.

Employees will also be reimbursed following successful completion of examinations for certificates that are required by their job descriptions. Similarly, renewals for required certificates will be reimbursed by the Agency.

Employee attendance at authorized outside activities, during normal working hours, will be considered hours worked for hourly employees and will be compensated in accordance with normal payroll practices.

This policy does not apply to an employee's voluntary attendance, outside of normal working hours, at formal or informal educational sessions, even if such sessions may generally lead to improved job performance. While the Agency generally encourages all employees to improve their job skills and promotional qualifications, such activities will not be subject to this policy regarding reimbursement or compensation unless prior written approval is obtained as discussed above.

7.14 RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES AND PROGRAMS

The Agency or its insurer will not be liable for the payment of workers' compensation benefits for any injury that arises out of an employee's voluntary participation in any off-duty recreational, social, or athletic activity that is not part of the employee's work-related duties.

7.15 WORKERS' COMPENSATION

The Agency, in accordance with state law, provides insurance coverage for employees in case of work-related injury. The workers' compensation benefits provided to injured employees may include:

- a. medical care,
- b. cash benefits, tax free, to replace lost wages,
- c. vocational rehabilitation to help qualified injured employees return to suitable employment.

To ensure that the employee receives any/all workers' compensation benefits to which they may be entitled, the employee will need to:

- a. Immediately report any work-related injury to the supervisor.
- b. Seek medical treatment and follow-up care if required.
- c. Complete a written Employee's Claim Form (DWC Form 1) and return it to the General Manager.
- d. Employees must provide the Agency with a certification from their health care provider regarding the need for workers' compensation disability leave and the employee's ability to return to work from the leave based on the essential physical function of the assigned position.

The Agency provides for medical treatment for work-related injuries through an Agency designated medical provider.

Employees who are injured in a work-related incident will be referred to the Agency's designated medical treatment provider, unless prior to a work-related injury, the Agency has received from the employee a written notice that the employee wishes to be treated by his/her own physician. Employees who do not designate their own physician will be treated by the Agency's designated medical treatment provider for work-related injuries, for at least 30 days, if required. Employees may seek treatment from their own physician after 30 days, should they so desire.

Upon submission of a medical certification that the employee is able to return to work, they will be offered the same position held at the time of leaving, unless the job has been filled in order to avoid undermining the Agency's ability to operate safely and efficiently, or the employee is not capable of performing the job responsibilities upon return. If the employee's former position is not available, a substantially similar position will be offered unless there is no substantially similar position available, or filling the available position would substantially undermine the Agency's ability to operate safely and efficiently, or the employee is not capable of performing the job responsibilities.

The law requires that this Agency notify the workers' compensation insurance company of any concerns of false or fraudulent claims. Any person who makes or causes to be made any knowingly false or fraudulent material statement or material misrepresentation for the purpose of obtaining or denying workers' compensation benefits or payments is guilty of a felony. A violation of this law is punishable by imprisonment for one to five years, or by a fine not exceeding $50,000 or double the value of the fraud, whichever is greater, or both. Additional civil penalties may be in order.
